Knowing the Liturgy of the Mass, and celebrating it as directed by the wisdom of the Magisterium, gives God a better chance to sanctify our soul.

Written in a simple and straight forward style, this handbook features: the entire Liturgy of the Mass; its Judaic origins; Preparations for the Eucharistic celebration; Church norms; Guidelines for Lay liturgical ministries; Eucharistic Miracles and Devotions; 125 Questions and Answers, and more.

Many quotations taken from the Bible and Church documents have been included directly in the text; documents such as The Roman Missal, the GIRM (3rd edition), the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Redemptionis Sacramentum, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Sacrosanctum Concilium, Mediator Dei and others.

The book was submitted for review to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and after complying with the requirements issued by the Catechism Committee, the USCCB granted us several permissions to reprint copyrighted material.

COMMENTS FROM READERS

"You have done a masterful job. Your annotations elevate the quality of the work immensely." Rev. JS, 50 years priest.

"Even though I consider myself well educated in the faith, while reading your book I learn something new at every page." TG, Attorney and Knight of Malta.

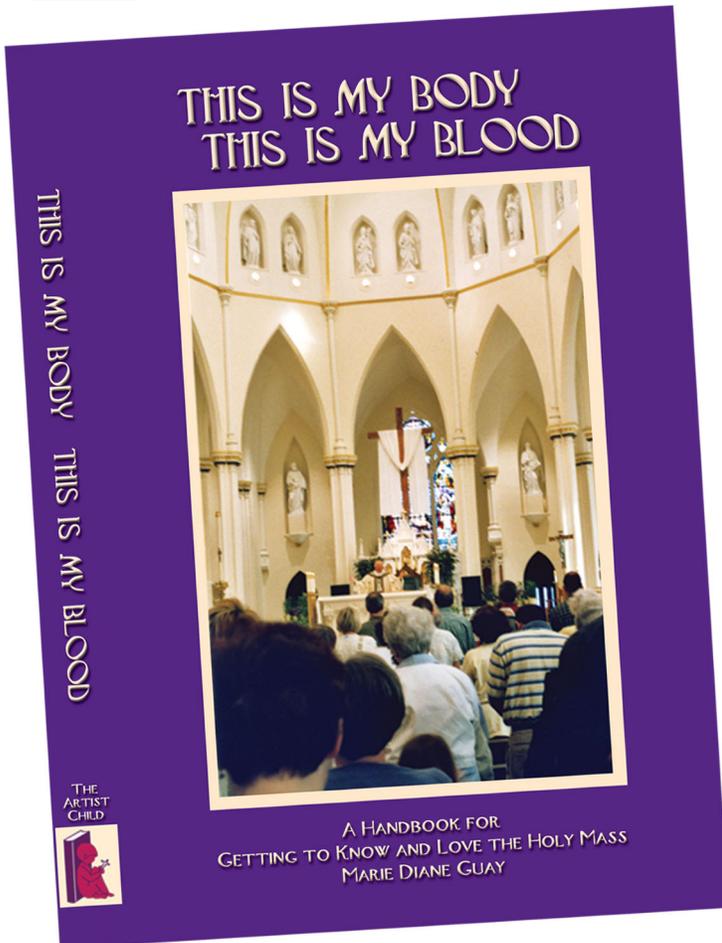

"Your book is nourishing my spiritual life in a very special way. It helps me deepen my love and faith in the mystery of the Eucharist." Sr. JF, O.S.F., Superior.

"It is obvious that you have done a great amount of research and put much thought into writing. The glossary and the Q & A section is most helpful." JK, Diocesan Director for Religious Education.

"Clear answers and explanations. Excellent for RCIA or the average Catholic who desires a fuller and richer understanding of the Holy Mass and the Blessed Sacrament." Alan Napleton, President of Catholic Marketing Network.

Who is The Artist Child?

The Artist is God the Father, The Master of Life, and the children are those who seek to know God and to live according to His will. (1Jn 3:22)"We receive from Him whatever we ask because we keep His commandments and do what pleases Him."
